Subject: CAS submission during the lockdown period amid COVID-19.

Respected Madam,

During the lockdown period from March 18th, 2020 until 6th June, 2020 and later continued to-date (23/06/2020) as summer break, teachers are not allowed to enter the departments for carrying out their academic and research activities. It is a matter of serious concern that all those teachers who were due for submission to CAS proforma for their placement/promotion under CAS could not submit their applications. Your good self had been communicated (previous communication No: JUTA/19-21/50 Dated: 05.06.2020) regarding extension of CAS proforma submission or making it online open advertisement. As JUTA has been assured by the authorities during recent JUTA meeting with esteemed Vice Chancellor Sir in your presence that online portal for CAS submission will be active in coming few days. A care must be taken not to consider date of application of CAS submission as date of eligibility, as University was closed including teaching wing. Therefore, at present, teachers who are ready for their CAS submission, their applications must be accepted by the teaching wing and not decline. Since JUTA has received representations from number of teachers, regarding CAS proforma submission turned down by the teaching wing. Your immediate intervention is sought to relieve the teachers and a notification in this context will bring a sigh of relief to the teachers.

With best regards,

Dr. Sikander Pal
Secretary JUTA
